Reflective Journaling

- How does this prayer challenge me?
- Where can I praise my husband in this area of life?
- Where do I see God stretching me, as a wife after reading this prayer?
- How can I bless my husband this week with this prayer in mind?
- Did I discover any new areas I can pray over my husband?

Thank you, God, for my marriage. Please be gentle with me as You show me ways I can change and become more like You. Amen!
